	Paradise Found by Rebecca Cole	(Abe Books) In Paradise Found, Rebecca Cole presents simple solutions to gardening in small, difficult, or awkward spaces -- the reality that seems to face so many gardeners today. Whether it's a tiny terrace, an oddly shaped yard, or a location both shady and sunny, Rebecca helps gardeners overcome the limitations of their environments. She offers practical guidelines for placement, color, and form and she champions the use of hanging plants and containers to create beautiful, easy-to-maintain gardens.
	The Tranquil Garden by Kay Fairfax	(Abe Books) A guide to creating a calm oasis outdoors, whether in a tiny backyard or a spacious garden. Feature spreads show how to incorporate garden ideas from other cultures, whether a Japanese rock garden or a Mediterranean-style fountain. Each section concentrates on one of the broad tenets of successful gardening and encourages the reader to seek inspiration from a wide range of sources. A final section looks at the practicalities of making what you want and still leaving you enough time to enjoy it.
	Garden Style - Ideas & Projects by Jerri/Tim Farris/Himsell	(Abe Books) This book welcomes in the Martha Stewart crowd, but it gives them something Martha simply will never understand-practicality. The books will be filled with ingeniously simple decorating ideas and projects-projects that are stylish, functional, and most of all practical.
	Secrets of Monet's Garden by Derek Fell	(Abe Books) Monet designed his garden as a painter's subject, using plants like brushstrokes. Premier garden writer and photographer Derek Fell helps the home gardener recreate some of Giverny's beauty through an illuminating examination of the painter's planting philosophies. With hundreds of full-color photographs, and reproductions, Fell sheds light on Monet's use of color, structure, favorite flowers; and more.
	Gaining Ground, Dramatic Landscaping by Maureen Gilmer	(Abe Books) Gardening guru Maureen Gilmer offers design ideas that translate well into any garden for every budget--even a postage-stamp backyard or terrace can become an urban oasis of water and color. Amazing before-and-after shots prove that garden fantasies can--and have--become reality.
	The Garden in Autumn by Allen Lacy	(Alibris) The Garden in Autumn explores the rich possibilities of a neglected season that in much of the United States is the very best of seasons for gardening.
	The Complete Guide to using Colour in your Garden by David Squire	(Abe Books) This is an informative and practical book packed with advice on growing more than 500 varieties of garden plants arranged according to color. Detailed growing instructions accompany each plant including vital information on cultivation, propagation, height and spread. 16 beautifully illustrated garden plans show to mix and match plants to create a beautiful color scheme in your garden.
	The Garden Color Book by Paul Williams	(Abe Books) The Garden Color Book includes over 600 photographs of individual plants— displayed horizontally in swatches by color—that let you flip back and forth, mixing and matching until you find the perfect color scheme. By showing what color blossoms a bulb or shrub will have when in bloom, this indispensable gardening reference allows you to imagine how a summer plot might look planted with a sea of flame red penstemon accented by some sky blue salvias or a spring border of lime green euphorbia.
